

Fundamental Beliefs of Trust & Inspire Leaders™

Sweeping changes in the world are forcing us to confront the urgent need for a new way to lead. The traditional “Command & Control” leadership style that prevails in 92% of organisations doesn’t inspire the level of commitment, motivation, collaboration, and performance needed today. For years we have talked about changing how we lead. Now it’s time to act.

Trust & Inspire is the leadership solution for the future of work. Trust & Inspire leaders get phenomenal results in ways that grow people. They focus on releasing—rather than containing—the potential in each of us. Trust & Inspire leaders help their organisations win in the workplace and win in the marketplace. This is exactly the kind of shift needed in leadership today.

Introducing: Fundamental Beliefs of Trust & Inspire Leaders

Fundamental Beliefs of Trust & Inspire Leaders explores five beliefs that transform how leaders think and behave. Trust & Inspire leaders have an expansive view of people and leadership. They deeply understand and are guided by fundamental beliefs about human effectiveness. The cumulative effect of these beliefs creates a Trust & Inspire leadership mindset.

I believe people have greatness inside them...
 → so my job as a leader is to unleash their potential, not control them.

I believe enduring influence is created from the inside out...
 → so my job as a leader is to go first.

I believe there is enough for everyone...
 → so my job as a leader is to elevate caring above competing.

I believe people are whole people...
 → so my job as a leader is to inspire, not merely motivate.

I believe leadership is stewardship...
 → so my job as a leader is to put service above self-interest.
